

Personal Data: is defined as “any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person (data subject);

An identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, generic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity or that natural person. This means online data which could, combined with other information, identify an individual is covered by the definition.

As a Clerk you hold persons email addresses, postal addresses, telephone numbers, a copy of the electoral roll, video, login/passwords be it electronically or on paper, all of these are data, so no Council is exempt from the General Data Protection Regulations.
